Viva Consultant: Justine Demmer

Coordinator: Ni Sat Hloo

Ni Sat says, “Through seeing that friends and partners had so much they still wanted to learn and things they wanted to change and knowing the people could help them do so, I realised I could bring the two together and form a network to bridge them together.”

Current Network Focus:
- Training in child protection and financial accountability
- Training through Why Families Matter and cultural education
- Preparing children and families for family reintegration
- Good Treatment Campaign
- Anti-trafficking awareness campaign

Current Highlight:
Anti-trafficking awareness campaign reached 1,500 adults and 2,600 children

Contact

http://blog.viva.org/tag/myanmar/